ABOUT THE EVENT

It is no question that it has been a turbulent few years for transport. Plagued by uncertainty the sector has been hit hard by circumstance and it has undoubtedly played havoc with progress.

At our annual Transport Lunch we will invite transport operators and private sector representatives to help us to get to grips with what is happening regionally and nationally within the transport sector. We will discuss what are, and what should be the priorities for us and our regional leaders and what does all this mean for business. At the lunch you will get to have your say so come armed with your thoughts so we can inform and provide a voice for our business community.

We will also be exploring the Net Zero agenda and what needs to be done to achieve our targets of Zero carbon by 2038.
